			personnel had been observed there. The gate on Behlert Strasse was guarded by a sentry with blue coller patches. The gate on Stalin Allee, however, was guarded by a soldier with red-bordered black coller patches. Almost exclusively NCOs with various service colors and a silver A on their epaulets were seen there. There was heavy passenger traffic between

25X1		4.	Comment. A metal "A" is worn by all KVP officer candidates on their epaulets. It is unknown what school or course is located at the Garde-bu-Corps Kaserne and the Leibgardehusaren Kaserne. So far, portions of the two installations had been occupied by units of Machanized Pereitschaft Potsdam. Prior to early 1952, the Leibgardehusaren Kaserne had housed a political school which moved to Berlin-Treptow.
